Vienna, October 6, N. S.

THE 3d of this Month, the Feſtival of St. Francis, whoſe Name the Elector of Mentz bears, was celebrated at Court with much Magnificence. On that Occaſion the Emperour made a Preſent to his Electoral Highneſs of a Croſs ſet with Diamonds to a great Value, as did the Empreſs of a very valuable Buckle ſet with Jewels for his Hat. The Nobility and Foreign Miniſters made a ſplendid Appearance that Day, in Compliment to the ſaid Elector. Their Imperial Majeſties and the Archdutcheſſes dined in publick with his Electoral Highneſs, and at Night there was a Conſort at the Palace. To-day his Electoral Highneſs ſet out from hence on his Return to Neus in Sileſia.

Caſſel, Oct. 11, N. S. His Swediſh Majeſty's Departure for Sweden is fixed for the 28th Inſtant. We have Advices from Brunſwick, that at a Ball which the Duke gave on Friday the 5th Inſtant, the two eldeſt Princeſſes of Bevern had ſo overheated themſelves with Dancing, that the next Morning the Small-Pox appeared upon them; that this unfortunate Accident will put a Stop to their Journey to Berlin, which was fixed for the Beginning of next Month. This Court grows every Day more numerous, by the Arrival of ſeveral Princes and Miniſters, amongſt whom is the Prince Erneſt of Bevern. General Diemar his Swediſh Majeſty's Miniſter to the King of Great Britain, arrived here from England the 9th Inſtant:
